

AHC50116 Diploma of Agriculture AHC60316 Advanced Diploma of Agribusiness Management

Subsidised by Tasmanian Skills Fund, Dept of State Growth
(ONLY 10 subsidised places available)

RuralBiz Training has partnered with Rural Business Tasmania to offer tailored, accessible training in the nationally accredited AHC50116 Diploma of Agriculture and AHC60316 Advanced Diploma of Agribusiness Management. These courses are well suited to farmers who want to improve their farming practices and learn more about the business side of agriculture.

Course units: Contact our office for information on unit availability

Delivery: Training is offered in an online format; all materials are available ONLINE in our specialised learning centre.

This gives you the flexibility of self-paced online training, with a great network of trainers and support staff to help you get the most from your learning. You can be mentored locally by Rural Business Tasmania if you need additional support.

Costs: These courses have been subsidised by the Tasmanian Skills Fund, Dept of State Growth

Student Contribution amounts:
Diploma of Agriculture: $1,824 (Full fee normally $11,000)
Advanced Diploma of Agribusiness Management: $2,034 (Full fee normally $12,000)

SAVE
$9,000+

There is no upfront payment required. RuralBiz Training students can choose to use the Commonwealth Assistance Scheme, VET Student Loans to meet course fees. See www.studyassist.gov.au or contact us for more information. We also offer payment plan options.

Timing: Subsidised places are on first come, first served basis. Students must commence course work by 25 December 2018. If subsidised places are filled, you will be offered a normal fee place. We expect the course to be completed within 1.5 - 2 years.

As nationally accredited courses, the Diploma of Agriculture and the Advanced Diploma of Agribusiness Management offer pathways to further learning such as the Bachelor of Agricultural Production and Management program at UNE.
